

Psychosocial work in the digital society
Room A-421, Østfold University College, Fredrikstad
December 10th 2018, third annual workshop for psychosocial work

8:30-8:55 Coffee, registration

- 8:55-9:00: Welcome,
 - Anna Lydia Svalastog, Professor Østfold University College
- 9:00-9:45 Medicine and care in the digital society,
 - Professor Srecko Gajovic, University of Zagreb School of Medicine, Croatian Institute for Brain Research
- 9:45-10:30 Science communication in the digital society: Why is popular culture important?
 - Dr. Joachim Allgaier, RWTH Aachen University, Germany

10:30-10:45: Coffee

- 10:45-11:30 Culture and agency in the digital society.
 - Anna Lydia Svalastog, Professor Østfold University College
- NKL-Book launch, with a presentation of contributions from Østfold University College

11:30-12:30 Lunch

12:30 – 14:30 Presentations + 30 min discussion at the end

- 12:30-12:50 What is the outside of the digital society
 - Dr Christian Fritz-Hoffmann Carl von Ossietzky University of Bielefeld, Faculty of Sociology, Germany
- 12:50-13:10 Maintaining normality when serving a sentence in the digital society,
 - Marie Toreld, PhD student, and Kristin Opaas Haugli, Resettlement coordinator at Kongsvinger Prison, both participants of PSW research group
- 13:10-13:30 Digitalization of speech: On normalization, resistance and innovation among speech disabled ICT-users
 - Dr Espen Marius Foss, Østfold University College
- 13:30-13:50 "Bloody paperwork": alienation in digitalised oversight of multidisciplinary community services for older people and people with mental health problems in the UK,
 - Dr Guro Huby, Østfold University College
- 13:50-14:10 Patient autonomy in a digitalized world
 - Dr Øystein Ringstad, Østfold University College
- Discussion 14:10-14:30

14:30-16:15 Coffee

- 14:30-14:50 Decreasing parental after-school stress with innovations in digital society
 - Professor Dina Šimunić University of Zagreb – Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing
- 14:50-15:10 Digital society and inclusion for people with learning difficulties: gains and detriments.
 - Dr Hadi Strømmen Lile and senior lecturer Lars Rune Halvorsen, Østfold University College
- 15:10-16:10 PhD Social media, addiction, and individual resilience
 - Fredrik Andersen, Østfold University College
- 16:10-16:30 Ambiguities of a digital society: Social media and human rights as seen from Myanmar
 - Dr Camilla Buzzi, Østfold University College
- Discussion 15:35-15:55

Closure: 16:30-16:45, Anna Lydia

- Lunch will be organized for participants.
Please register for lunch by sending an e-mail to als@hiof.no
- Dinner 17:00-20:00 People pay individually.
Register for dinner-reservations by sending an e-mail to als@hiof.no

Previous workshops on psychosocial work by the Psychosocial work research group:

- Second: Oct 30 2017: Rus og psykososialt arbeid. Temadag med samarbeidspartnere fra Ahus, Kongsvinger fengsel, Halden fengsel.
- First: Oct 24-25 2016: Methods, body-mapping & narratives. Bullying, mental & somatic health, Workshop with the SHARK-network.

