Anna Lydia gave information on recent events within the Network:

- Jennie and Anne Leonora did the review of the April 2018 COST Action. The new application was submitted at November 2018 by Anna Lydia and Srećko. The task of submission of the COST Action was supported by Norwegian Reserach Council.
- PANELFIT H2020 project was funded and the coordinator is University of Basque Country in Bilbao in Spain, where the member of the network Inigo de Miguel is involved in it, and Anna Lydia is member of Advisory Board. We hope that Inigo and PANELFIT will host a meeting in Bilbao in spring to help improve COST Application.
- New NKL-members. PhD students are part of the network. Denis, Barbara's Prainsack PhD student, 2 PhD students are at Ostfold College and Marusa Nardoni is PhD student at University of Ljubljana. Hrvoje declared 4 more PhD students at his Department, which are doing similar topics, and could be connected. This means that we could organize a small PhD workshop for these students. Still, the financial support is the issue, which needs further attention. The network can support PhD students' publications, develop an arena to discuss their projects, and organize PhD training workshop. Everybody approved.

The issues of financing the network were discussed.

- As an examples of eventual project Erasmus was mentioned, then Marie Sklodowska Curie applications, in partiucal individual fellowships and ITN networks. Renata is interested in applying for Marie-Sklodowska Curie as a fellow, and network will support it.

- There are as well specific grants to support network conferences, for example by Swedish grant agencies.

Future networking events were discussed and decided upon.

- The agreement was confirmed that the format of annual conference is to be continued.
 - o The 3rd NKL conference will be in Ljubljana in November 2019. The keywords for this conference are physicality, embodiment, dichotomies, binaries, knowledge, mirage, ignorance. Gender and ethics would be as well part of the call. Local organizer will be Franc, who would confirm the above plan in the near future.
 - o The 4th conference will be in Bielefeld in 2020, where local organizer will be Christian.
 - o The 5th conference will be in Ostersund in 2021, where local organizer will be Jennie.
